With a focus on examining the elements that have led to Manyavar Vedant Fashions Pvt Ltd's rise to popularity in the Indian ethnic wear market and its trajectory as a top fashion brand, this case study seeks to go deeper into the company's history, tactics, difficulties, and accomplishments.

1.1 Problem Statement

Manyavar's first objective was to create an organic presence on SEPRs. In order to bring this about, Manyavar decided to boost Organic Click Share and Enhance Organic Ranking.
2. MANYAVAR’S ORGANIZATIONAL STRATEGIES

"Company Owned Company Operated" (COCO) is a business strategy wherein a company owns and directly operates its outlets or stores rather than franchising or relying on third-party operators. Implementing the COCO model in Manyavar fashion under Vedanta involves several strategic and operational facets. The key structural changes that this strategy brought into the companies are as follows:

- Control: With the use of the COCO model, Manyavar is able to keep direct control over its outlets, guaranteeing a uniform client experience, adherence to quality standards, and consistent brand representation around the board.

- Functional Effectiveness: Having its own stores allows Manyavar to control costs and improve operational efficiency by streamlining processes, streamlining supply chains, and implementing uniform procedures.

- Consumer Perspective: Manyavar is able to concentrate on improving client experiences because it owns its stores directly. They have the ability to incorporate customized offerings, individualized communications, and a uniform retail environment that complements their brand identity.

Data-driven decisions for product offerings and marketing tactics are made possible by Manyavar's ability to collect insights on customer preferences, purchasing patterns, and regional trends.

- Management of Risks: Managing its own stores reduces the risks of depending on outside operators. Manyavar lowers possible risks because it has more control over elements like quality control, inventory management, and customer satisfaction.
Adaptability and Flexibilities: Manyavar can quickly adjust to changes in the market, client preferences, and emerging trends thanks to its direct ownership. When necessary, they can quickly apply adjustments to their offerings or modes of operation.

Innovation and Brand Image: Direct control allows Manyavar to experiment more freely with new ideas and create one-of-a-kind experiences in their stores, which strengthens their reputation as a forward-thinking, customer-focused fashion company.

Education and Training: Manyavar may concentrate on extensive employee training programs thanks to direct ownership, which guarantees uniform service quality and product expertise across all locations.

Extended Plan and Expansion: Manyavar's long-term growth strategy is in line with the COCO model. They may retain a strong brand presence and develop a sustainable business strategy by owning and running their stores.

Vedanta Manyavar fashion can exert direct control over its outlets through the application of the COCO (Company Owned Company Operated) model, which guarantees consistent brand representation, operational efficiency, improved customer experiences, strategic expansion, and data-driven decision-making. This business strategy is in line with Manyavar's goals for the fashion industry, which include expansion, innovation, and customer-centricity. MVFL's business model focuses on product diversity, quality, and an Omni channel approach. Strategies include:

Product Diversification: - Offering a range of traditional clothing for various occasions and age groups.

Retail Expansion: - Establishing a wide network of physical stores and an online presence.

Target Audience: - Catering to a broad demographic seeking high-quality ethnic wear.

Brand Localization: - Adapting designs to suit regional preferences and cultural nuances.

- Celebrity Endorsements: Leveraging popular figures to enhance brand visibility.
- Cultural Relevance: Incorporating festivals and traditions into marketing campaigns.
- Unique Brand Identity: Establishing a distinct brand image through consistent messaging and quality.

Manyavar Vedant can strategically penetrate new domestic and foreign markets, hence growing its worldwide reach, by comprehending regional trends and preferences.
- Digitized Combo: With the growth of e-commerce, Manyavar Vedant has the opportunity to improve consumer satisfaction by utilizing digital channels. Especially for clients who prefer online channels, investing in virtual try-ons, exclusive digital releases, and user-friendly web interfaces promotes a seamless and accessible purchasing experience.
- Collaborations and Limited Editions: Considering limited editions or partnerships with well-known designers and influencers gives Manyavar Vedant an air of exclusivity. This tactic can arouse curiosity and enthusiasm in customers, increasing interaction and solidifying the collection’s reputation as a trendsetter.

2.2 Trends in the Ethnic Wear Industry and Manyavar Vedant's Alignment

- Eco-Friendly Design: Manyavar Vedant is in line with the worldwide trend towards environmental concern by looking at sustainable techniques. Positioning Manyavar Vedant as a socially and environmentally concerned business may entail procuring sustainable textiles, putting ethical production practices into place, and encouraging the lifetime of designs.

By utilizing these technologies, Manyavar Vedant distinguishes itself from typical retail experiences by creating an immersive and interactive shopping environment in addition to staying up to date with industry trends.

2.3 Operational Excellence

Operational efficiency in MVFL is achieved through:

- Efficient Supply Chain: Streamlined sourcing and distribution channels for raw materials and finished products.

- Design Innovation: Adapting designs to suit changing consumer preferences.

- Technology Integration: Utilizing technology for inventory management and customer experience enhancement.

In the world of franchising, a business model known as the FOCO model is one in which the franchisee owns and runs the franchise outlet under the brand's management. In addition to controlling the day-to-day operations of the outlet, this agreement gives the franchisee the ability to use the franchisor's brand, business model, operational systems, and assistance. The FOCO model could be applied in the following ways to Vedant Fashions, a well-known company in the fashion industry:

- Ownership and Management of Franchises: Interested parties will be able to own and run stores under the Vedant Fashions brand by applying for franchise opportunities. These franchisees would make the necessary investments to open and operate the stores in accordance with the operating standards and guidelines of the brand.

- Independence and Accountability: Franchisees would have a great deal of control in running each of their own stores under the FOCO concept. In order to ensure compliance with Vedant Fashions' defined brand image and rules, they would oversee a variety of operational tasks, including employing personnel, managing inventories, developing marketing plans, implementing sales strategies, and upholding customer service standards.

- Brand Uniformity and Assistance: As the franchisor, Vedant Fashions will offer thorough assistance to guarantee uniformity throughout each franchise location. This support consists of initial training programs for franchisees, continuing coaching, marketing materials access, help finding items, and constant oversight to guarantee quality control and adherence to brand standards.

- Growth Approach: With the FOCO model, Vedant Fashions can grow its market share and reach new areas without having to pay for the initial construction and running expenses of each new location. The brand can expand at a faster rate by utilizing the funds and local knowledge of its franchisees. Driven by the brand's recognition and assistance, the franchisees help the brand expand while reaping the rewards of well-established business procedures and a well-known name.

- Revenue Distribution and Business Structure: The FOCO model usually incorporates a revenue-sharing scheme. In return for using the brand name, operational support, and access to Vedant Fashions' proven business strategy, franchisees pay royalties or a portion of sales to the company. With this approach, the interests of both sides are aligned: franchisees obtain access to an established brand and economic structure, while the franchisor gains from the success of each branch.

• Shifting to Meet Local Needs: Local market preferences can be accommodated to some extent through the FOCO approach, however maintaining brand consistency remains essential. As long as they maintain consistency with Vedant Fashions' overarching brand identity, franchisees may be able to modify some areas of their business to better meet the demands and preferences of their consumer base.

• Obstacles and Success: Several things determine if Vedant Fashions' FOCO model is successful. Maintaining a consistent brand image depends on the franchisor and franchisees having effective communication. Ensuring the franchise network maintains high standards requires ongoing support, training, and oversight. The success of the model is also greatly influenced by consumer preferences, market conditions, and franchisees' capacity to carry out the brand's vision.

3. Financial Performance of Manyavar

4. CHALLENGES FACED AND STRATEGIES IMPLEMENTED

It was found out that the Top Navigation Structure was improper and that there were problems such as,

1. Anchor Text That Isn't Relevant
2. Anchor Text that points to an invalid URL

It was recommended to provide for new Top Navigation with appropriate Anchor Text based on Search Volume Analysis. Manyavar was able to obtain Top 3 rankings for several competitive keywords after putting this into practice.

- 610% increase in organic ranks in the top positions
- 55% more organic ranks in the top five positions

Challenges such as market saturation and changing consumer preferences were tackled through:

- Continuous Innovation: Adapting designs and styles to meet evolving trends.
- Digital Transformation: Strengthening the online presence to reach a wider audience.

Due to the overabundance of traditional clothing labels on the internet, Manyavar set out to rank in the top 5 places for competitive generic keywords like "Wedding Dresses for Men," "Sherwani," "Kurta Jacket," and "Engagement Dress for Men."

To address the issues and achieve these goals, a comprehensive plan was developed to improve the website's SEO performance. It included the following actions,

- Make sure the website can be effectively crawled by Google bots.

- Boost all non-brand keywords' rankings
- Make landing pages and optimize them with the forthcoming festivals in mind.
